FETHIYE TO FETHIYE TURKISH RIVIERA GULET CRUISE

Departing & finishing in Fethiye this itinerary is a fantastic way to explore the stunning stretch of coastline it provides opportunities to experience the sights otherwise not so easily accessed. This cruise includes stops at historic sites and charming towns, allowing you to immerse yourself in Turkish culture and history. You can enjoy a variety of activities such as swimming, snorkeling, kayaking, and hiking, while also relaxing on the deck with beautiful views. Whether you decide to explore or stay aboard and just relax. One of the best sides to gulet voyages is the freedom to enjoy your preferences.

You will depart from the port city of Fethiye at 4:00 p.m. It is known for its beautiful beaches, lively centre, and great food, making it a popular tour destination. Once we visit the many loved sites here, we will move on to Boncuklu Bay. Situated west of the centre, the bay is a great swimming spot.

Other activities that take place here include water sports and relaxing at the beach club. We will stop at Boncuklu Bay for the night

Day 2 – Butterfly Valley, Blue Lagoon St, Nicholas Island

Butterfly Valley is one of the most visited destinations within the vicinity of Fethiye. Its name is given due to the many butterfly species in some months of the season that can be found here. Known for its beautiful views, glistening waters, and ecotourism, this will be the first stop.

Another pivotal location in Fethiye is the Blue Lagoon. It is a naturally sheltered lagoon with some turquoise warm waters and a sandy beach. Beach clubs and water sports facilities can be found here, for those wishing to take part in activities. After soaking up the sun, the tour will then move into St. Nicholas Island, also known as Gemiler Island. It is said that the original tomb of St. Nicholas. Other main features include secluded bays and ancient ruins.

Day 3 – Aga Limani Bay to Cleopatra's Bath

In the Gulf of Gocek, Aga Limani Bay can be found and is a much-loved site for group tours. The bay features crystal clear waters, a healthy ecosystem, and the ancient ruins of Lydia. The bay itself is a collective of two smaller bays, where underwater springs can be found making the water incredibly clean.

After spending the first part of the day here, the tour will move on to Cleopatra's baths. Located within the tranquil Hamam Bay, the ancient bath is said to have been built by Marc Anthony for Cleopatra as a wedding present. Crystal-clear waters, mountainous surroundings, and pine-studded cliffs make this spot a must-visit site.

Day 4 – Sarsala Bay to Bedri Rahmi Bay

Located south of Dalaman, Sarsala Bay is one of many inlets in the region. Stunning waters, densely pine wooded hills, and practical facilities all make this bay a favourite in the Gocek Gulf.

Perfect for anchoring and staying overnight, the waters are calm making it great for swimming, snorkelling, and diving.

As the tour heads northeast, the next stop will be Bedri Rahmi Bay, also known as Tasyaka Bay. It is named after the famous artist, writer, and poet, Bedri Rahmi Eyuboglu, due to his fish mural at the entrance of the bay. Naturally sheltered boasting beautiful views, this is a popular spot for tours and boaters alike.

Day 5 – Merdivenli Bay to Domuz Island

Amongst the picturesque surroundings of Gocek and the pine-forested hills, we will visit Merdivenli Bay. This bay is a much-loved spot in the area for relaxing and soaking up the sun. There is a small village settlement where residents sell locally produced jams, honey, and other goods.

From here we will cross over to Domuz Island also known as Prince Island. The island is named after the wild boars which are thought to have lived on the island. Although uninhabited, there are ruins that can be found dotted across the land. The most famous bay here is Aquarium Bay

Day 6 – Zeytin Island to Yassica Island

Zeytin Island lies south of the Yassica Islands and is named after the olive trees that cover its lands. It is a privately owned island and is home to an olive processing factory.

From here, the tour will move on to Gocek, a small-town part of Fethiye. A highly prominent yacht tourism site, Gocek has six marinas. It is a Registered Area of Special Protection, so despite high levels of tourism, its beauty has been preserved.

Yassica Islands will be the last stop. The collective of 5 islands is uninhabited and provides opportunities for swimming and water sports. The islands are relatively close and can be swum to and from with ease.

Day 7 – Kizil Island Help Beach and Samanlik Bay

Situated west of the coast of Fethiye and south of Gocek, Kizil Island is one of the most popular Gocek Islands. Its name translates to Red Island derives from the colour in which it turns during sunset hours. The island is largely uninhabited however a lighthouse can be found, perfect for taking pictures.

Help Beach will be the next stop and is situated within Boncuklu Bay. There is a lively beach club and Yacht club with several facilities.

We will cruise Fethiye Harbour around 4:00 pm for the night.

DAY 8 – Fethiye

Tour will end in Fethiye on the final day at 9:00 a.m.

The coastal and port city famous for its Blue Cruise tours has several surrounding sites that can be visited. However, the city centre and old town are also host to a wealth of tourism hotspots. Visitors can find many restaurants, nightlife establishments, souvenir shops, local markets, and Paspatur Bazaar, all worth visiting. In addition to this, historic sites such as the Lycian Stone Sarcophagi and Fethiye Museum can also be visited while in the city centre.
