SOUTHERN FIORDS NEW ZEALAND CRUISE

Explore Doubtful, Breaksea and Dusky Sounds, including Preservation and Chalky Inlets, aboard the Fiordland Jewel

Soak in the atmosphere and pristine wilderness of New Zealand's largest National Park on this six-night expedition. Part of the Te Wahipounamu World Heritage site, Fiordland's Doubtful, Breaksea and Dusky Sounds are rich in history and spectacular scenery. Experience the area's native birds and sea life up close and personal, with opportunities for kayaking, short walks and fishing to catch a feed, if you so wish, from our purpose-built catamaran, the Fiordland Jewel.

With a maximum of just 18 passengers onboard, there will be many opportunities to soak up stories of the area from our knowledgeable crew, and to take in breathtaking vistas from the deck or from any of our nine climate-controlled cabins, all of which have sea views and private ensuites. Relax in the hot tub on the top deck and enjoy all your meals prepared by our talented onboard chef.

Individual cabins can be booked for yourself, your small group of family and friends, or as a couple, for an experience you'll be talking about for years to come.

rs to come.

DAY 1

Fly via helicopter from Te Anau and land directly onboard the Fiordland Jewel which will be waiting in Preservation Inlet or Dusky Sound..

DAY 2-5

Cruise through Breaksea, Dusky Sounds, and Preservation and Chalky Inlets. We may do activities such as:

Bush, island and beach walks including the most south-westerly point of the South Island, Puysegur Point

Visit historic Captain Cook and Gold Rush sites

View incredible wildlife - Dusky Sound and its surrounding fiords are havens for marine and bird life

Some fishing to catch a feed, if you wish to do so

Kayaking and tender boat excursions

DAY 6-7

We'll start to head back north through Breaksea and Doubtful Sounds. At Doubtful Sound on Day 7, you'll disembark and take a coach over the Wilmot Pass, a boat over Lake Manapouri to return to Manapouri.

Please note:

Of course, the weather is central to a Fiordland experience, so the itinerary of your cruise may differ depending on the conditions on the day. The above sample itinerary is from Preservation Inlet ending in Doubtful Sound, Doubtful Sound to Preservation Inlet is in reverse.
